

Miranda Alliance

The Miranda Alliance consists of a network of independent lawyers and law firms, which are autonomous at the business, financial and organisational level, but created with the aim of fostering collaboration among its members on the basis of a letter of principles underpinning the following areas:

- Mutual referral of clients and potential clients;
- Collaboration and knowledge-sharing in projects or transactions spanning more than one jurisdiction;
- Joint tenders for legal services covering more than one jurisdiction;
- Promoting common training and professional development initiatives;
- Sharing knowledge and experience of management and office technologies;
- Joint marketing and communication initiatives;
- Compliance with the relevant legislation governing the provision of legal services in each of the countries covered by the Alliance, including the Statutes of the respective Bar Associations.
